

ARTICLE 111—MEMBERSHIP.

Section A—The organization shall be composed of persons interested in aquatic life as a hobby and, who, having paid the proscribed dues, agree to be governed by the regulations and bylaws and any amendments which may, in the future, be properly adopted and approved.

Section B— A visitor may not attend more than two meetings without becoming a member of the society.

Section C—Membership shall be divided into the following categories:

1.—Family—Consists of all relating or cohabiting residents of a single mailing address; i.e. father, mother, children, siblings and grandparents of a married or unmarried couple living together on a permanent basis and any children of either that live with them. Single members are also included in this category.

2.—Corresponding—Members who live more than 50 miles from downtown Youngstown.

3.—Junior—Members aged through 18 who do not have a parent or guardian who is a club member.

4.—Commercial— Sponsoring businesses and includes a business card size ad in the Youngstown Aquarist and mention on the website. Two designated members of that business are entitled to attend all club functions and benefit from all membership privileges.

Section D-- Any member whose conduct reflects against the character of the society shall be notified in writing and entitled to a hearing before the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have final jurisdiction, including expulsion, on the case.

Section E—The Board of Directors may offer special membership rates to first time members at special events. This will be posted in a conspicuous manner and announced at the event.

Section F— Annual become due in the moth of January.

1.— Dues will be pro-rated for the first time member who joins late in the calendar year by dividing the membership rate by twelve and multiplying that Number times the number of remaining months before the next January.